What Football Did For an Indian.

Does football ever help a man to a good position in after years? Walking along the side lines of the Ohio State Carlsie game last Thursday there was a stockily built little man who bore every mark of being a redskin. He was gentlemanly in his appearance and neatly dressed. This little man was none other than Hudson, the famous quarterback of the Carlsie eleven of the latter nineties. Hudson has been heard of in every nook of the land for his strategy in running football teams and for his wonderful foot kicking ability. Scarcely an Eastern eleven but has had her goal line crossed by this method when he ran the team. Hudson has been somewhat forgotten of late. A little inquiry brought out the fact that he is a trusted employe of a large Pittsburg bank, where he is a teller. That is what Hudson, the Indian, did, and what his notoriety as a football player also helped him to do through fame secured in this manner.—Toledo Blade.

COUNTY FINANCES.

Total Indebtedness in Washington County is $286.40.

E. W. Huntley and L. E. Wells, the new assistant judges, have made up the county financial statement for the year, and have appointed the old county officers. The judges find the outstanding indebtedness of the county to be $250 for temporary loan and $481.84 for outstanding orders drawn, but yet to be presented to the treasurer for payment, making a total indebtedness of $731.84, from which deduct the amount due from the state, $192, and $265.20, balance in the treasurer's hands, showing the net debt to be $286.40.

The debit side of the treasurer's account shows the balance in his hands on December 1, 1903, was $163.29, received from rent of the Walton house $16.75, temporary loan $1,050, timber sold $12, received from county tax $1-996.07 and there was paid out for orders drawn $1,563.21, treasurer's salary $25, insurance $77, paid temporary loan and interest $1,460.60, cash on hand $265.30, or a total of $3,391.11.

M. E. Smilie is county clerk and county auditor, and A. W. Ferrin is county treasurer.

A STEADY GAIN.

National Life Insurance Has Record Month for November.

Montpelier, Dec. 12.—The National Life Insurance company sends out a statement of progress from which the following items are clipped.

"The record for eleven months of 1904 is made, and we are entered upon the last and, according to usual experience, the largest month of the year. This is a good time to review for a moment the work already done and to consider the outlook for the few weeks yet remaining to us in the present year. November was unusually fruitful in new issues—the largest month during the year and one of the largest in the history of the company. In comparison with November, 1903, the gain was $877,465, or 59.73 per cent.

"For a ready comparison of progress, we submit the following table, showing the net new issues by years, the first eleven months of 1904 yielding somewhat more than the entire issue of the largest previous years: 1905, $12,570, 920; 1904, $17,545,767; 1903, $15,441, 785; 1902, $15,942,302; 1901, $20,295, 917; 1900, $20,053,225; 1904, (first 11 months) $20,562,240."
